UNMC Munroe-Meyer Institute Recreational Therapy Volunteer Opportunities SUMMER 2018

The Munroe-Meyer Recreational Therapy Program would like to invite you to volunteer! Our programs offer student volunteers, ages 13 to 25, hands on experience interacting with children and youth with developmental disabilities

UNMC Munroe-Meyer Institute Recreational Therapy Department provides programs for children and youth ages 3-21 years old who have developmental disabilities. Individuals participate in a variety of activities in groups of 10-12 participants supervised by experienced recreation therapists, recreation therapy technicians and trained volunteers. Volunteers assist our participants with a variety of activities, including; art, music, cooking, sports, games, playground activities, swimming and community outings.

Location:

All of the programs take place at the University of Nebraska Medical Center on the first floor of the Munroe-Meyer Institute, 444 South 44th Street.

Summer Volunteer Registration Fee $25:

This is a one-time fee and includes a t-shirt and all field trip costs. Please indicate size on application. Please make checks payable to MMI Recreation Therapy and attach to your completed application. Volunteer applications will not be processed without the $25 application fee.

Orientation Information:

All NEW volunteers are required to attend training before participating in our program. Volunteers will be introduced to many different topics including: physical therapy, recreational therapy, occupational therapy, speech pathology, psychology, and infection control.
